Lewis	'The Snow Goose' by Paul Gallico. A simple, short parable on the regenerative power of friendship and love, set against a backdrop of the horror of war. It documents the growth of a friendship between an artist living a solitary life in an abandoned lighthouse in the marshlands of Essex because of his disabilities and a young local girl. As human friendship blossoms, the snowgoose is nursed back to flight. 'The Chronicles of Narnia' by C.S. Lewis (especially 'The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe'). Adventure story set in a magical land, on the battle between good and evil, and echoing the story of Jesus. 'The Little Prince' by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry. A pilot crashes his plane on an asteroid inhabited only by a Little Prince and his beloved rose. The Prince is a sort of amateur philosopher who seems unconcerned by his solitude, and who has a habit of dispensing wisdom in reply to questions from the pilot that he never properly answers.	Watch the news each evening and discuss events. ## YEAR 8 BELIEFS AND VALUES EXTENDED LEARNING

Key issues..	Why not watch...	Why not read...	Why not...	Why not visit...
Islam	Evil and suffering The Impossible (12)	'Sophie's World' by Jostein Gaarder . This introduces some key thinkers in Philosophy, but from a fictional perspective.	Watch the news each evening and discuss events. If a story interests you research it in more depth.	Central Manchester Mosque
Buddhism	Matters of life and death The Lovely Bones (12) / The Fault in our stars (12) / Ghost town (12)	'Watership Down' by Richard Adams . If you think that rabbits are cute, read this book! As well as raising issues regarding friendships, relationships and how we get on with other communities, chapters 6 and 31 make a worthy effort at trying to reconcile Darwinian 'survival of the fittest' with the existence of a loving God.	Buy and read a broadsheet newspaper	Manchester Buddhist Centre
Evil and suffering	Value of Human life The Truman Show (PG)	'Chicken Soup for the Teenage Soul' by Jack Canfield . Kooky stories with a spiritual message. This book contains invaluable lessons on the nature of friendship and love, the importance of belief in the future and the value of respect for yourself and others. It also deals with tough issues like death, suicide and the loss of love.	Follow news organisations on social media  Find news stories / case studies related to the issues being covered in class  Revise the basics of the world's religions http://www.bbc.co.uk/religion  Research an issue that concerns you and extend your understanding of the arguments for and against

About two children, Lyra and Will, and their adventures in parallel multiverses on one level. However, influenced by Milton's Paradise Lost, deeper themes abound reflecting Pullman's atheism and distrust of organised religion. 'Lord of the Flies' by William Golding. Dystopian novel about a group of British boys marooned on a desert island during some unspecified nuclear war. It charts a descent into savagery by apparently well-educated children left to themselves in what should be paradise and focuses on human nature and individual welfare versus the common good. 'The Young Atheist's Handbook: Lessons for Living a Good Life Without God' by Alom Shaha. This book in part tells the story of the author, brought up in a strict religious family where he was not allowed to question his faith, but inside did. The author then goes on to explain how he thinks it is possible to live a compassionate and meaningful life without God. Contains some swearing.	Watch the news each evening and discuss events.
